

The Answer to Telephone Operator Overload

The Announcement Appliance Model AA-4860 automatically answers calls when your Operator can't. Calls overflow from the busy Operator to the Announcement Appliance where callers receive your own personally recorded greeting. Callers are then placed on hold until the Operator is free to take the calls. Other applications include ACD/UCD announcements and recorded information services.

For further details please contact